14-7 win for Homecoming

The 1981 Homecoming ceremonies were highlighted by our 14-7 victory over the Highland Scotsmen.

During halftime activities David Harding and Robin Peach were crowned Homecoming King and Queen. Runners-up were Ernie Stancil, Pat Daniels, Marty Navarrette, Melissa Rudnick, Carlos Maldanado and Deanna Ojeda.

The King and his court were awarded engraved Key chains and lapel carnations. The Queen and her court received engraved bracelets and flowers.

Alumni Cheerleaders from as far back as the Class of 1976 accented both the Homecoming Rally and game, providing the spirit of tradition for Trojan Fans.

Homecoming Committee, responsible for arrangements, was made up of Dana Forrister, Alisa Howeth, Kristen Jacobsen, Kathy Wright, Laura Slagle, Nathan Walker, Samantha Nerove, Sharlene Coon, Lorenze Rodriquez and Larry Rangel.

Three place at Decathlon

Senior Paul Lambert took first place in Social Science, Donnie Riehl took second places in the Math and Interview events and Nathan Walker took second in the Fine Arts and Interview at the Second Annual Academic Decathlon. Held November 7 at West High with Foothill competing for the first time, the team placed sixth out of 25 Kern County high schools.

The Decathlon consisted of ten events in social science, mathematics, English, fine arts, and ended with super quiz on today's energy situation.

Advised by librarian Julie Zisk, six students with two alternates made up the team - two students with an "A" average, two students with a "B" average and two students with a "C" average.

Participants were: Diane Luvisi, Shane Reno, Robert Contreras, Cindy Walquist, Lisa Atwater, Nathan Walker, Paul Lambert and Donnie Riehl.

Team coaches were Buzz Caffee and Harry Love for social science, Irv Dalke and Chet Heater for math, Mike Hopkins and Marjorie Lidwig for fine arts, Glen Wheeler and Frank Kom for science and Phyllis Jung and Julie Zisk for English.

FHS actors win 3 awards

The spotlight fell on the 12th annual Shakesperean Festival when Foothill players took three of five awards presented at the November 7 competition. FHS players received Best Ensemble award, senior Nathan Walker won Best Actor, and junior David Kennedy won an Outstanding Performance award.

The FHS performers presented a scene from Henry VI, Part Two, competing against nine other high schools.

Foothill won the Best Ensemble award with a unanimous vote from the judges.

FHS drama teacher Peg Pauly was organizer of the festival.

"I knew the scene would win from the beginning because the scene had a lot of action," said David Kennedy (Sam the butcher).

Odilia Araijo, from Arvin, received Best Actress award and Christi Davis, from West, won the second Outstanding Performance award.

This year the Regional Occupation Program brought a Graphic Arts class to the Foothill campus. Charles Garcia, KHSD photographer, was the instructor of 19 student photographers.

The students photographers developed and printed the pictures for the school yearbook and newspaper and performed other jobs such as taking pictures for teachers who needed pictures for school activities.

They also created and distributed Lime, a photo magazine for their fellow students. Graphic Arts students were required to be able to fill out applications, be interviewed and to conduct public relations with each other and the consumer world (journalism staff) by the end of the nine-month course.

Government classes were invaded by a wave of politicians, invited by students as part the course.

Bakersfield Mayor Mary Kay Shell talked about increasing Bakersfield's image and the beautification of the city. Assemblyman Don Rogers and State Senator Walter Stern both discussed state re-apportionment problems.

Trustee candidate Muril Clift encouraged students to urge their parents to vote in the Board of Trustees elections. Councilman John Means and James Barton debated the effects of the state redistricting program.

Coroner Richard Gervais talked freely of some of his cases and discussed the responsiblities of the office.

Spirit stick, whipped cream mark rallies

Cheerleader squads held 13 rallies. Two were breakfast rallies located in the cafeteria. The breakfast rallies, one before football playoffs, the other before basketball playoffs, started at 7:30, with donuts and milk being served by the cheerleaders.

Rallies in the gym included competitions among the four classes, among these was one contest to see who could eat a pie tin filled with whipped cream the fastest. A sleeping bag race highlighted another rally. Other activities included a skit performed by La Raza, a dance exhibition by AAA, and introductions of the varsity teams by the varsity cheerleaders.

A spirit stick was awarded to the class that exhibited the most spirit throughout the rally. Four faculty spirit judges were chosen each rally to judge class spirit. The Sophomore Class earned the spirit award the most in 1981-82.

ASB leads

The purpose of Associated Student Body (ASB) is to bring the student's point of view to the administration. The ASB was active holding student council exchanges with Garces and Tehachapi Highs, and presenting a 3-screen production titled "Looking Forward." The production was put on by Canfield and cost Foothill approximately $300.00.

The ASB presented a dance November 6th and also voted to allow "Trojans of Foothill" to be printed on the back of the lettermen jackets.

Voting members of the ASB consisted of the four class presidents and Commissioner of Athletics Samantha Nerove, Commissioner of Publicity Kelly Chavez, and Commissioner of Culture Affairs Larry Rangle, ASB President Deanna Ojeda, Vice President Nathan Walker, Secretary Robin Peach, and Treasurer Diane Luvisi.

EPIC flies to 'All-Valley'

EPIC journalists attend the Fresno State University Journalism Competition annually, but the March 20th trip was special in more than one way.

Not only did the staff win the coveted "All-Valley" award, but they were flown up to Fresno in a chartered aircraft, compliments of the parents of one of the EPIC reporters.

"Their generosity saved us hours of driving time," said EPIC advisor Bob MacGuire, "and provided the EPIC with its most memorable trip ever."

Sherry and Mark Rutkoskie, parents of reporter Maribeth Brohmer, volunteered the use of their company's turboprop Beechcraft when they learned that the staff was driving to Fresno. At Fresno, the EPIC was rated "All-Valley" for the second time in its history. The first was in 1977.

Junior Garey Guzman won a first place trophy for the "on-the-spot" competition in Sports Writing.

"I didn't expect to win first place," said Guzman. "It was a real shock when they announced my name."

In the "mail-in" competition, co-editor Jeff Mayo and freshman Bryan Ward won first place for their story on "Female Football" which appeared in the December 4 issue. Mayo also received third place in the "mail-in" for his news story on "Chalkboard Flu" which ran in the January 22 issue.

Fingers flash at Cubeathon

America's newest trend, Rubik's Cube, gave Foothill students and faculty the chance to show their speed and efficiency at Foothill's first Cubeathon. The Cubeathon, held November 18, saw senior Erik Harshman take first place with an overall time from three tries of four minutes, fifty-two seconds.

There were six contestants in the contest, including mechanical drawing teacher David Olds. Olds had an overall time of nine minutes, thirty-seven seconds.

"I felt that the faculty should be represented in the contest," said Olds.

Second place went to freshman Pat Pipkin and third went to junior Simon Rojos. Junior Brian Slominski won fourth and freshman Darrin Harshman took fifth.

Junior Garey Guzman organized and ran the contest, which took place in the Visual Aids Center. The rules for the contest were that contestants would have to use the same cube throughout the contest.

This proved unfortunate for Olds, whose cube lost a part during the contest.

The run for office . . .

A.S.B. elections, held Wednesday, March 31, had a larger candidate turnout for most offices than in past years. Although seven candidates ran unopposed, the offices of president and vice-president had four candidates. In the runoffs, David Kennedy edged Steve Pruett for president and Sam Nerove captured the vice-presidency from Annette Otten.

Other newly elected officers went to Linda Medina for Secretary; Treasurer to Stacy Anson, and Sandy Sousa filled the Helen of Troy position.

Commissioner of Athletics went to Eric Slagle, Publicity to Sophie Level, Health and Safety to Kirsten Jacobson, Cultural Affairs to Jennifer Tatman, Clubs to Kathy Wright, and Kathy Herrera was Historian.

1981-82 A.S.B. Vice-President Nathan Walker was in charge of setting up the elections. For the first year at Foothill, there was in-class voting. Ballots were passed out at the beginning of third period, picked up at the end and then the seniors on the council counted the votes.

Cheer squads keep busy

Led by cheerleading advisor Marilyn Wertz and Helen of Troy Laura Slagle, the varsity cheerleading squad had more on their minds than just shaking their pom-pons.

Along with promoting school spirit all year, they planned 11 regular rallies and two breakfast rallies. They also sold candy bars, homecoming carnations, roses, Trojan buttons and they had several bake sales for fund raisers.

In October the National Cheerleading Association (NCA) held a clinic at Foothill for cheerleaders from all surrounding high schools. All six members of the Varsity squad also attended a summer camp in Irvine, California, where they learned various cheers and routines.

The JV cheerleaders earned the "Sweepstakes Outstanding Pom Pon Squad" trophy, and junior Sandy Sousa, won the "Outstanding Pom Pon Girl" award.

The freshmen rally team and the Frosh/Soph cheerleaders were also a part of the pep squad.

Cal State axes Model U N

By Donna Taylor

For Foothill Government students, the Model United Nations (U.N.) was a chance to learn about international politics - but not anymore.

Increasing costs and growing lack of student interest were the reasons Cal State cancelled the program, according to Dr. Jim George, Dean of General Studies at Cal State Bakersfield.

"The program was extremely costly and many high school students were not interested," explained George. "It started in 1973 at Cal State...

Aurora, the FHS yearbook, was directed by editors Christy Phillips and Rhonda Plant, and advisor Bob MacGuire.

With a budget of $13,500, the Aurora met five major deadlines before completing the final production. Friday deadline days saw the staff members munching Ceasar sandwiches through the late hours of the afternoon. A new class, ROP Photography, processed all the photos used.

The final product, published by Walsworth Publishing Co. in Missouri, was distributed to the student body at the annual yearbook signing party June 7th.

CSF visits Disneyland

The California Scholarship Federation (CSF) was formed to honor outstanding scholarship. CSF helps exceptional students by giving $50 book scholarships to seniors for college.

The Federation sponsored an annual trip to Disneyland February 19. To pay for this, CSF sponsored a spaghetti dinner February 18. They also held bake sales and a playnight to raise money for scholarships.

For the second year in a row the club was unable to take a trip to a state college campus, a tradition of the club. Tight budgeting kept the school from financing the trip.

CSF officers were President Diane Luvisi, Vice President Paul Lambert, Treasurer Nathan Walker, Secretary Steve Pruett and Historian Jeff Mayo.

Spotlighters ended their season of plays after performing for Foothill assemblies, competing in several drama competitions and staging shows for elementary schools.

The Spotlighters held its annual Shakespeare Festival November 7, where Foothill took three out of five awards. Advisor Peg Pauly's Spotlighters received Best Ensemble, Best Actor and Outstanding Performance.

As part of the Festival, the Ashland Acting Team performed for Foothill students. The group is a professional team which tours the country and performs at schools and playhouses.

During the year, Spotlighters performed plays like "The Timid Dragon," "The Invisible Dragon," "Noah's Ark," and "A Toby Play."

Spotlighter officers were President Nathan Walker, Vice President David Kennedy, Secretary Chris Osborn and Treasurer James Hart.

Block F raises $

The Block F Club kept busy with many activities, sales, and events during the year. The club raised money by several T-shirt and jersey sales, a faculty-student basketball game, and a dance. Block F also sponsored the powder-puff football game and the tug-of-war competition between the classes.

The club made contributions to athletic teams and projects. A contribution of equipment was made to the weight room. Book scholarships were still another contribution given to deserving seniors.

A pizza party held at the end of the year was one of the club's more relaxing activities.

Club officers were President Pete Lizama and Vice-President Greg Little.

A newspaper should reflect the community it serves, and the Epic of Foothill High tries to do just that. Besides covering sports, clubs, band, drama, and the hundred and one other campus activities, the Epic put you inside the teacher sickout, advised you with entertainment reviews, and let you state your views with letters to the editor.

Only editors Jeff Mayo and Don Robinson had more than one semester's experience at the start of the school year. Beginning reporters covered such events as the Christmas Formal, Homecoming, and the cancellation of the Model United Nations. Beginners also participated in the Epic's investigation of local theater's enforcement of age limits for movie goers as set by the American Motion Picture Association.

Epic advisor Bob MacGuire modernized the newspaper format from last year's "All American" award-winning paper. The National Scholastic Press Association for the second time rated the Epic "All American", an award that only five percent of the nation's school newspaper receive.

Cutbacks in ASB funds forced the Epic to rely on advertisements as its main means of support. Every staffer was required to sell at least one ad per issue.

Epic staffers made their annual spring pilgrimage to Fresno State University, where they competed in various journalism events.

After flying to Fresno, compliments of Mr. & Mrs. Mark Rutkowski, EPIC staffers won four writing awards and earned an "All-Valley" award, the top rating. The EPIC is printed by the Lamont Reporter.

Key Club serves FHS

Foothill's Key Club is one of the most active on campus. The all-male service club was involved in both school and community activities.

One such activity was playing floor hockey with other Key clubs in Bakersfield. They also sold football programs at all home games.

Social Studies teacher Buzz Caffee, advisor of the club, held meetings at 7:30.

President of the Key Club was David Harding, Vice President Ron Lehr, Secretary Eric Slagle, and the Sergeant of Arms was Pete Lizama. Senior Sweetheart was Robin Peach, and the Junior Sweetheart was Katie Peterson. Co-advisor was Ted Oliver.

AAA sponsors Black History

The Afro-American Association, AAA, is made up of Blacks who care about their heritage. Black History Week, an annual project of AAA, included an assembly for the school which presented the history of great Black leaders. Students performed dances, sang, and had a fashion show at the February celebration.

AAA also sponsored a dance at the end of the week and sold fruitcakes to raise money.

Officers were President Pat Daniels, Vice President Anthony Ford, and Secretary Felecia Woolfolk.

Christmas calendars fund German Club

Even though activities for the German Club were few and far between, they stayed alive as a group.

Most members of the club were part of the German class, where they studied the German language and German customs.

Members sold 5¢ German taffy and Chocolate Christmas calendar's as fund-raisers.

German Club officers were President Kelly Chagoya, Vice President Jeff Mayo, Secretary Jeri Leavelle and Treasurer Dana Forrister. German teacher Ingrid Silverman advised the club.

"Feasthill" was the name given to the combined Foothill-East Orchestra. The two orchestras combined to play a Christmas Concert along with other concerts. (Staff photo.)

A performance at Dodger Stadium highlighted the Trojan Band's year. The band marched in the Veteran's Day Parade and received two First Place awards, one at the Arvin band competition and the second at the BHS band competition. They also earned Second Place at the BC band competition.

Norris Miller directed the band in its performances at all home football games.

This year the band added a new addition to it's ranks, the Rifle Team, which performed at all activities with the band.

The band and Rifle Team raised money for a trip to Disneyland and other activities by selling candy and Football windbreakers.

Another musical organization was "Feasthill," the combined Foothill-East High orchestra, which performed a Christmas concert and other joint efforts. FHS senior Tom Wiggins was selected for the All State Honor Orchestra in January.

Band officers were President Diana Jones, Vice President Michelle Arvizu, Secretary Jeff Hollingsworth, Sergeant of Arms Rick Davis, Historian Thein Le, Drum Major Tim Gallemore, Asst. Drum Major Charles Beasley, Uniforms Guy Slominski and Steve Pruett, Music Kelly Bohl and Percussion Kenny Brewer.

Forensics raises talking to an art

The Forensic Club's goal was to qualify and compete in the State Speech Contest, hosted by various universities each year. Students involved in the club competed with speakers from other schools within the local Southern Valley Forensics League.

The Forensic Club was affiliated with the National Forensic League, whose officers were elected by league schools.

Members also participated at various service club speech contests and college and university invitational speech contests throughout the year. The group was advised by English teacher John Biehl.

DECA runs its own show

DECA club (Distributive Education Club of America) was formed for business students. The club runs the student store in C-20, which sells school supplies for a reasonable mark-up. Advisor Tom Frank feels that students should have their own club and be able to run it as they want. The club held a swimming party and a pizza party, paid for by the profits of the student store. They also held a skating party and a picnic.

The club meets every other week in C-20. Officers of DECA were President Gwen Tolman, Vice President Carla Claiborne, Secretary Nadia Tisserent and Treasurer Kim Paradise.

Spear & Shield revises Formal

Spear & Shield, the Junior Class club responsible for putting on the Christmas Formal, had a big issue before them once more - when to schedule the formal. Last year the club moved the Christmas Formal from December to January and renamed it the Winter Formal.

The club decided to return the formal to December and return it to its original name. Counselor Robert Rodriguez took the position as co-advisor along with Special Education teacher Dan Shannon. The two faculty members and Spear & Shield members met in F-7 every Thursday morning before school to plan the dance.

Officers were President Dyna Murphy, Vice President Katie Peterson, Secretary Stacy Anson and Treasurer Leslie Lampson.

Troy atop SYL

By Jeff Mayo

After last week's heart-breaking loss to Bakersfield High, 69-68, Foothill needs a victory against SYL co-leader South High tonight, to take the SYL lead in boys varsity basketball action. Foothill defeated Arvin 75-60 Tuesday night.

The Trojans, undefeated in league play at the time, took Bakersfield into overtime before a backed Trojan gym January 14.

Undefeated Troy takes SYL prize

"We are the Champions" was heard from many football players as the Trojans ended the season as undefeated South Yosemite League champions.

Two of the Trojan's key games were victories over West and BHS. The win against West, 31-29, broke their 17 game winning streak. Scoring 14 points in the last 1:13 for a win against BHS boosted the Trojans to the Valley playoffs. A final win against South gave them an undefeated season.

Entering the Valley playoffs November 27, the Trojans destroyed Redwood 22-0.

In the first quarter of the semi-final game against Madera, however, injured quarterback Tim Hansen had to leave the game, leading to a 24-0 loss to the Coyotes.

Team strength lay on both offensive and defensive line play. The team had a good running attack with Hansen, Eric Slagle, Jon Serna, and Greg McBrayer. Pete Lizama, with the highest GPA on the team, was selected Lineman of the Year. All-City Players include Lizama, McBrayer, Miles Maiden and Greg Little.

Second team All-City included Ron Lehr, Hansen, Slagle, Reggie Burrell and Cody Colchado. Most Valuable Player award went to Hansen; Little was Most Outstanding. Maiden was Most Improved, and Lizama was Most Inspirational. Team Captains were Little and Lizama. Slagle was Best Non-Senior Back, and Best-Non-Senior Lineman went to Russel Duke. Johnny Matthews received the Best Non-Starter who Exemplified Trojan Spirit, and the McLemore Award went to Hansen.

Titan defense shuts out EB

"Palmdale and BHS were the Titan's key games," commented coach Julio Mercado. "We were ahead until the 4th quarter and Palmdale put on a sustained drive from their own one yard line to beat us."

"The one and only highlight of our season was a win over East High. It was also a shutout for our defense," continued Mercado.

The Titans ended their season with a 1-5 SYL record and a 1-8 overall. Outstanding players were quarterback Joe Camel, runningback Calvin Love, safety Bodee Covington, guard Adam Sotelo, and defensive lineman Fellie Bradford. Awards went to Most Outstanding Calvin Love; he also received Best Offensive player. Fellie Bradford, Bodee Covington, and Rodney Wolford all captured the Best Defensive Player awards. Most Improved was received by Julian Rodriquez and captains were Kris Marchant and Adam Sotelo.

Gibson takes F/S reins

The Frosh-Soph team may have lost all its games, but first-year coach Mike Gibson felt that his team never gave up. Closeness was a factor in the East and West games. In both of these, the victory could have gone either way.

"We played real well in both games but couldn't get things going. When we did, it was too late," explained coach Gibson.

The team's main weaknesses were due to lack of experience. According to Gibson, "Three-fourths of our players had never played organized football before."

Awards were presented to Jim Meadows for Most Outstanding, and Best Offensive player was Mike Dallas. Arron Chambers was elected Best Defensive player. Most Improved went to John Hopkins. Bobby Boyd and Russell Rodriguez were voted team captains.

Bayless places second in SYL

The varsity boys cross country led by coach Ted Oliver finished its season with a record of six wins and five losses and 5th place at the SYL meet.

The team's outstanding runners were junior Larry Bayless and senior Kent Scofield, according to Oliver. Bayless established two school records: 5 kilometer at 15:46, and 10 kilometers at 51:50. He also broke two junior class records: a new home course record against North in a time of 15:09, and a 15:09 finish at Hart Park in the Area Meet. He had seven victories only one loss in dual meets.

Senior Kent Scofield was another greatly improved runner, according to Oliver. Scofield took an 8th place with a league time of 15:55 and 9th place medalist at the Area Meet with a run of 15:44.

The front-running of Bayless and a strong group of sophomore runners helped lead the team, but the lack of upperclassmen on the team and inexperience of many runners were its weaknesses, according to Oliver.

Most Inspirational went to sophomore Odray Fernandez, Bayless received the award for Most Outstanding, and Scofield was selected Most Improved runner.

Boyar, Peach pace 4-6 season

Girls cross country's key race was the SYL Meet, where they took sixth place. Overall record was four wins and six losses.

Five girls made up a full team, yet a low turnout of girls, lack of summer preparation, and inexperienced runners weakened the squad, according to coach Ted Oliver.

Robin Peach was named Most Inspirational, and Connie Boyar was selected Most improved. Boyar had the top time of the year at 12:57, placing number six on the all-time list. She was an SYL medalist and led the team with twelth place in the Area Meet.

Frosh runners dominate SYL

Foothill's Junior Varsity didn't dominate as they have in the past years, yet they placed 3rd in SYL with a record of 6 wins and 3 losses. They were paced by freshman Anthony Blake, who won SYL Meet 8th place, posting a time of 11:22. Marty Valles was the squad captain and Ricardo Orozco won Most Improved.

"Our frosh-soph was the strength," explained coach Ted Oliver. They too placed 3rd in SYL, with a record of 6-5. Brent Harris was captain and Most Improved went to Anselmo Reyes.

The Freshmen squad had an individual champion, Mike Elsberry, with a two-mile time of 12:51. Andy Tapia was the squad captain. The Freshmen won the SYL meet at Hart Park November 6.

"This is a good freshmen group," commented Oliver, "and could help our team in the future."

Ojeda All-City for 2nd season

Senior Deanna Ojeda was selected fo All-City Varsity Volleyball for the second time. Ojeda was also elected captain and had the highest GPA on the team.

The volleyball team's overall record was 1-19, and the SYL record 1-13. According to coach Jan Graves, the team's greatest strength was the fact that the players approached each game with high spirits and a very willing attitude.

Missy Rupe, setter, received the award for Most Outstanding player, Angie Jaso was Most Improved, and Lavonne Reese Most Inspirational.

Unity highlight of JV season

Team unity was a key asset for the Junior Varsity volleyball players. They reached a 2-12 record in the South Yosemite League and an overall record of 3-13.

Coach Teresa Huth commented that plenty of potential was shown by her players. The Junior Varsity tournament played earlier in the year was one of the highlights. Although the team was eliminated, they held their own against opposition like West, North, and BHS.

The playing ability of each qirl was a definite strength, said Huth, yet passing and inconsistent serving were major weaknesses. The key matches were a victory over BHS and three exciting games in a losing effort against West.

Outstanding players were Brenda Hill, Arlene Macias, Ida Franco, and Nancy Martinez. Player awards went to Stacy Canfield-Most Improved, Nancy Martinez-Most inspirational, Brenda Hill-Most Outstanding, and Ida Franco-Captain.

F/S volleyball beats EB twice

Frosh-Soph volleyball had a disappointing season, but two wins against East High highlighted an SYL record of 2-12 and an overall record of 2-14.

Server-Hitter Linette Spreen said, "Serving was a problem for our team, but we had a lot of spirit and pride."

Merci Subia, Linette Spreen, Kelly Bohl, Yvonne Jaso, Margie Holder, Renee Jaso, and Sandy Loving aided the team with great tournament play against West, BHS, and Arvin High Schools, according to coach Diane Hill.

The Most Outstanding Player was Merci Subia and The Most Improved Player was Linette Spreen.

Woolfolk shoots to SYL top

The boys varsity basketball team had an exciting season, with an overall record of 16-7 and an SYL record of 9-5.

"The most exciting games played were against BHS," said coach John Minear. "We lost both games by 1 point, which let them win the league."

Star players forward Eric Charles, forward Gary Woolfolk and center Joe Turner highlighted the season by being selected to the SYL All-City basketball team. They also helped the team win the SYL playoff tournament and hold down first place for most of the season.

The Most Outstanding player was Gary Woolfolk, The Most Improved player was Joe Turner, The Most Inspirational player was Ernie Stancil, The Best Defensive player was Wesley Davis, the team captain was Eric Charles. Gary Woolfolk, top scorer in the SYL, was awarded "Athlete of the Week" by KBAK, Channel 29 television.

Holland Key to Girls B'ball

Captain Robin Holland was varsity basketball's key player, according to coach Jan Graves. Holland averaged 20 points per game with her unusual hook shot. Senior Karen Minor's defensive moves and control of the boards kept the team alive many times. Juniors Vellira Scott, and Desiree and Monique Lomas rounded out the starting line-up. Freshman Stacy Canfield and seniors Terri Franco and Robin Peach completed the squad.

The team's record was 5-15, which was one better than the previous year. The most exciting games were against Highland and Arvin. Both were played at FHS and showed a great amount of team effort, according to coach Graves, which led to victories.

Strong defense helps both F/S squads

Boys Frosh-Soph basketball had an impressive record of 10-4 and an overall record of 15-6.

"I felt our key to a winning season was our defense," commented coach Dan Shannon.

Team highlights were losing to BHS and West High in the first round of league play, then beating them both decisively in the second round, added Shannon.

Outstanding players were sophomore guard Steve Hammond, freshmen center Dante Stancil, sophomore forward Calvin Love, and freshman guard Joe Camel.

Most Improved went to sophomore Daron Nunn, Best Defensive player went to Dante Stancil, Best Offensive player was Joe Camel, Most Valuable and the Captain's Award went to Steve Hammond.

By scoring a 31-11 victory over East Feb. 17, the girls Frosh-Soph team ended their season with a SYL record of 5-9.

The girl's team received a new leader, walk-on coach Darren Richardson, who commented that their weakness was the failure to practice in their spare time.

"We have a lot of young girls who don't like to get out on the weekends or practice in their spare time," commented Richardson. "They show up when there is a game and expect to play well."

"We work together and try hard," commented freshman Angie Smith. "We don't win many games, but we try."

The team's ability to pass also affected their performances on the court.

"Our passing ability is weak, and we need more fast breaks," said sophomore Nancy Martinez.

Nerove, Lizama reach State

The varsity wrestling team was aggressive, had drive, and a good attitude, according to coach Seymour Nerove.

The team finished the season with an overall record of 8-3, and a SYL record of 4-3.

According to Nerove, high points of the season were beating Shafter, South, and West during preseason matches. Other highlights were placing eighth at the Costa Mesa Tournament and receiving a first place in the Small School Division and Sixth overall at the Cal Poly Tournament.

"South was a key match," said Nerove. "Although we lost, we proved we were competitive with any team in SYL."

At the SYL Tournament on February 12, sophomore Darrel Nerove, junior Matt Forry, and senior Pete Lizama all represented Foothill in the finals. Both Lizama and Nerove placed first and Forry placed second in his division. Foothill also had two wrestlers place third and two place fourth at SYL.

Outstanding wrestlers were Darrel Nerove, Pete Lizama, Kris Merchant, and Matt Forry, according to coach Nerove. Both Nerove and Lizama advanced to the state championships in post-season competition.

Experience weak link for Titans

Although lack of experienced wrestlers was the Titan's main weakness, they managed to compile a 3-4 record, bettering the previous year. According to coach Nerove, the JV squad produced some outstanding wrestlers, such as Jesse Pinon (107 lbs.), Les Thomas (167 lbs.), Bennie Lizama (200 lbs.), and Russell Duke (Hvywt).

Team qualities were "enthusiasm and spirit," according to coach Frank Ramos.

The Titans placed 3rd in the SYL Tournament.

Win over AV bright start for baseball

Trojan baseball started the season with a 6-2 pre-league record. Their win over Antellope Valley was the first against AV in 9 years, boosting the team's confidence for the upcoming contests.

Coach Gary Johnson commented about the enthusiasm and intelligence of the team.

Pitcher Bodee Covington and outfielder Aaron Reynolds were the outstanding players, according to Johnson along with catcher Greg Little and infielder Ed Finkle.

Minear brings mound threat to Troy s'ball

The girls varsity softball team got off to a good start with a preseason record of 4-0.

Coach Bob Ezell welcomed senior Joy Minear, a West High transfer student, who pitched a no-hitter against Monache, a two-hitter against Kern Valley, and a one-hitter against Shafter.

Ezell felt the team's strengths were pitcher Minear, junior shortstop Marci German, and senior centerfielder Kim Paradise.

Their main weakness was an inexperienced team. "We don't hit well as a team," added Minear.

Frosh/Soph teams build strength

The Frosh/Soph softball team had strong hitting and outstanding defense, according to coach Dave Edmondson. Most Outstanding players were pitcher Michelle Sutton, catcher Michelle Aruisu, center fielder Donna Haycook, 2nd baseman Irene Olague, 3rd baseman Brenda Hill, and right fielder Kim Oberless, according to the coach.

"We had a full team of outstanding ladies,' commented Edmondson, "although lack of team depth in skilled positions was a weakness."

The Frosh/Soph baseball team opened its season with a doubleheader win over Kern Valley.

"Freshman Johnny NesSmith is the best defensive catcher I've coached in 7 years," according to coach Julio Mercado. Anselmo Reyes is another outstanding player, said Mercado.

"We have a lot of freshmen on the team with little experience, but overall we had a good group of boys out for the team," commented Mercado.

'Will to work' marks track

Led by coach Bill Moore, boys varsity track was loaded with a team willingness to work. The team was also greatly strengthened in the weight events and pole vault. Weight events were led by seniors Miles Maiden and Pete Lizama, while the key men of pole vaulting were senior Eldon Reese and juniors Tom Houston and Stan Galanski.

The only weakness in general, was a small turn-out and a young team.

The meets with North and West were the highlights of the year.

Early wins spur girls track squad

Despite a low turnout, the girls track team started the season with wins against Arvin and Highland.

According to coach Rod McClintock, the outstanding team members were junior Sam Nerove and senior Robin Peach, who both competed in hurdles. Other outstanding players were Connie Gallaher, Regina Roberts, and Jeanette Windes.

"We had a very young team," commented McClintock. "They were almost all freshmen. As the year progressed they continued to improve and have a good competitive spirit."

The key meet of the season was the SYL meet on May 14. This was the meet where the championship was decided.

Experience, depth slow tennis squads

Although the girls tennis team was equal ability-wise to some of the other schools teams such as East and South, coach Darl Gloeckler commented that not having the depth required to be competitive was a definite weakness.

Leslie Lampson was the strongest player, playing either first singles or first doubles. Linette Spreen was a newcomer to the varsity team, yet her competitive attitude really helped her game tremendously.

The boys varsity had a win early in the season over North, which was a key asset because it gave the players confidence that they could win in league play.

Donnie Riehl and Scott Cox were outstanding players, although coach Dean Larimer commented that the overall team was an inexperienced one. They played in a league that consisted of players who had been playing all their lives, yet FHS played very tough against players with the same level of experience.

Swimmers merge with RB squads

In her second year as coach of the swim team, Jan Graves was disappointed with the turnout of swimmers. There were only two Varsity swimmers and six Frosh-Soph swimmers.

For this reason, Foothill's team combined with East Bakersfield's team. This combination allowed Foothill swimmers to compete in relays as well as experience a full meet.

According to coach Graves, "It was great when East High swimmers were yelling for the Foothill swimmers as we competed against other schools."

Strong points of the squad were juniors Steven Pruett and David Kennedy.

Epic receives 'All-American'
By Erin O'Brien
The Epic has been rated "All American" for the second time in its history. Foothill's student newspaper received its first "All American" in 1978.
Newspapers from all over the United States are rated each year by the National Scholastic Press Association.
The Epic is consistently rated First Class, the highest associations rating each year. "All-American" newspapers are selected from First Class group to receive the honor award.

Luvisi, Gallemore Outstanding for '82

An honor student each of her four years at FHS, Outstanding Senior Diane Luvisi has made a career of academic excellence. Qualifying each year for membership in the California Scholastic Federation, the academic honor society, Diane served as President in her senior year and was graduated as a CSF Gold Seal Bearer, the Federation's highest honor.

Diane earned the Most Inspirational Player award on the tennis team during her sophomore year and qualified for her varsity letter as a junior. A member of the Pep Band, she also served as Band Librarian.

Busy as a senior, Diane served as Associated Student Body Treasurer, was a member of our nine-student Academic Decathlon Squad and accumulated awards that included the Bank of America Liberal Arts Plaque, the Exchange Club's District Youth award and the Optimist's Service award.

Tim Gallemore, the Class of '82s other Outstanding Senior, has been a leader in the Trojan Band. A four-year member of the Marching Band, the Concert Band, the Jazz Band and the Pep Band, Tim added the Orchestra to his activities during his sophomore year and was selected to the Honor Orchestra the last two years.

A member of the swim team during his freshman year, Tim also earned the Outstanding Bandsman award during his freshman, sophomore and junior years.

Starting a career as a drum major at Sierra Junior High, Tim was selected drum major of the Trojan Marching Band as only a junior (a first for Foothill) and continued to lead the band as a drum major in his senior year.

Senior Arnie Mena puts his name on the registration line.

Cheers and Draft registration were two topics that came together in our Senior year.

At rallies the senior section was always filled with seniors rooting on their class beneath spirit - boosting signs that read "82 Rules" and "82, the Class with class."

"Driller Killer Day" feature seniors made up as injured Drillers and Halloween brought out costumes that ranged from punk rock to bums.

"I want you" was a familar saying to males between the ages 18 to 26 in the senior class.

Eighteen-year-old males who now have to register for the draft since the law was passed last year registered 30 days before their 18th birthday or 30 days after without being penalized.

A Supreme Court decision last year ruled that females are exempt from this registration.

Registering involved going to the Post Office and filling out a Selective Service application and turning it in to a recruiter. (J. Leal photos)

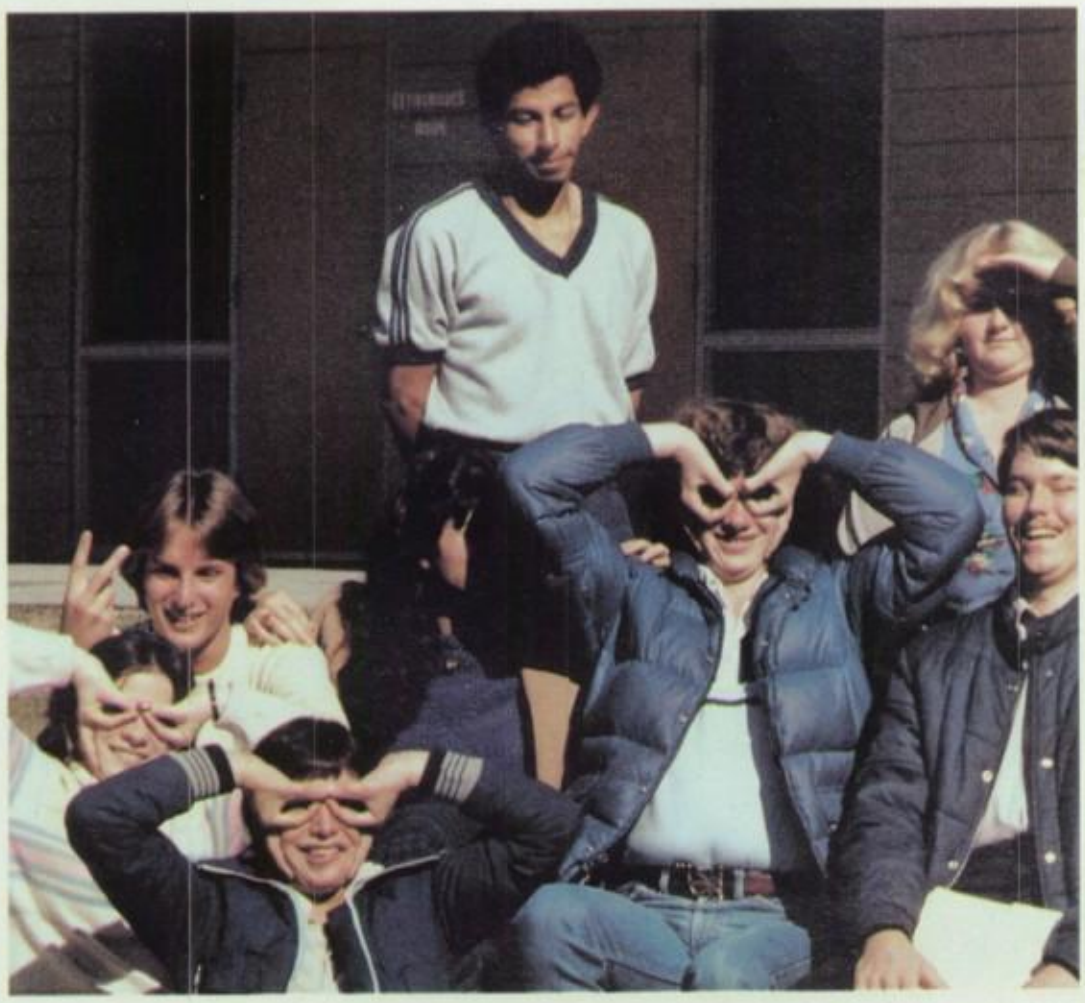
CFS President Diane Luvisi and advisors Phyllis Jung and Jo Fulcher discuss scholarship possibilities.



CSF seniors Diane Luvisi, Donnie Riehl, Nathan Walker, Deanna Ojeda, George Ninio, Paul Lambert, Cindy Wahlquist, and Don Robinson at an "informal" CSF meeting.

Gold Seal bearers were those seniors who had been members of the California Scholarship Federation (CSF) for four semesters.

Each Gold Seal bearer receives a gold seal on the diploma, indicating that the graduate had been an honor student.

The purpose of CSF is to encourage students to be successful in school and to award them with scholarships to aid them in furthering their education, according to advisor Jo Fulcher.

Seniors CSFers were President Diane Luvisi, Vice-President Paul Lambert, Treasurer Nathan Walker, George Nino, Deanna Ojeda, Donnie Riehl, Donald Robinson, Cindy Wahlquist and Shari Wilson.

Proficiency Tests, Kern High School District exams that measure minimum abilities in math, reading and writing, gave some seniors a harder time than others.

Begun five years ago, the tests are given at least once a year to all students, and must be passed in order to receive a diploma.

The writing test seems to provide the most trouble, and some seniors sweated out graduation right up to the spring, when they either made or didn't make their final eleven-hour hurdle. (J. Leal photo) of senior graduation portraits begins early each summer, when the Aurora's yearbook photographer contacts seniors to arrange for their photo sitting. A series of phone calls, post cards, and letters remind seniors that they must be "shot" early to be a part of the yearbook senior section.

"Shooting"

Confused? Senior twins Janie and Janice Romero. Or is it Janice and Janie?

A confusion of twins from the Class of '82.

Seeing double? It was probably just one set of the senior twins who helped make up the Class of '82.

The Senior Class had seven sets of twins: Donald and Donna Longcrier, Amelia and Emma Mendoza, Baba and Mario Mojica, Dan and Don Robinson, Janice and Janie Romero, Lisa and Teresa Stewart, and finally Robert Ledford and Robin Peach.

Many of the twins not only confused their friends, but also the teachers. English teacher Joe Brackley had a rough time during his third period class trying to figure which twin was Dan and which was Don.

What is it like being a twin? "What's it like not being a twin?" countered Don Robinson. (J. Morris photo)

Many seniors were absent from the usual Friday and Saturday night action at FHS activities and hangouts. Instead they could be found at places like McDonalds, Wild West, Wendy's, Sears and many other local businesses, working part-time for the bucks that make life easier.

In preparation for working years ahead, some seniors decided to take on employment while attending school. Although deprived of free-time and extra curricular activities, many felt working gave them a head start on the rest of the class.

What goals did you accomplish with your own "dinero"? "I put one hundred in the bank every month for the future use and bought clothes, snacks and paid bills," answered senior Carol Level. (J. Leal photo)

A one and a two and . . .

Music is always a popular hobby, and many juniors were involved in music at FHS. Steve Pruett has been in the Foothill Trojan Band three years, and hopes to continue his music at Annapolis Naval Academy in Maryland, where he plans to play his trumpet in the Annapolis Drum and Bugle Corps.

Another junior with an interest in music was Daren Hiett. Daren organized his own band with the help of senior Mark Maza, a band they named "Crossfire".

Daren played the rhythm lead guitar. Mark was on the drums; senior Mike Reed was the bass player, and senior David Besst was another guitar player.

Daren hopes to make a career out of his music, and Cross fire played selections from Blue Oyster Cult, Ted Nugent, Boston, Foghat, Van Halen, and AC*DC.

Many students dressed up during Driller Killer week, held the week of the Bakersfield High game. To increase school spirit, cheerleading squads dressed as Drillers who had been mangled by our Trojans. It proved worthwhile, as the Trojans pulled off a last minute victory October 23.

Another dress-up day during Homecoming week, October 26 - 30th, was Halloween. Many students encouraged school spirit by dressing as clowns, leopards, and even rabbits.

During the Christmas season, Student Council celebrated by dressing as elves, gifts, and other holiday figures.

Have you hugged your kid today? Probably not if it's on a Thursday evening, because that's when many students gather at history teacher Dave Slagle's house to meet for Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

FCA is a Christian organization that tries to bring individuals together and help them towards a stronger Christian faith, according to organizer Chuck Harriger.

"It is a worthwhile experience," says junior Kim Faris. According to seniors Robin Peach and Nolan Campbell "FCA is very good for kids our age. It gives us the chance to worship Christ. It also brings the students at school closer together and makes students feel more comfortable to be able to share Christ with other students."

There were between 35-50 Foothill students who participated each week, and more than half were juniors.

Foothill's FCA "huddle" was directed by Dave Slagle, his wife Pat, and parent Chuck Harriger.

text in drivers education classes.

A dream of most Foothill juniors is to own and operate their own car. Whether it's a "hot-rod" or "clunker," the pride of driving is still there.

But one thing is always in the way of driving off in a fancy car - the Drivers License.

Most students reach the driving age of sixteen in their junior year, when they visit the Department of Motor Vehicles to take written and driving skill tests. The written test consists of questions relating to the rules of the road and driving safety. The driving test involves displaying driving skills on the road, in the presence of a terrifing DMV inspector.

If both tests are passed, then you are photographed and awarded your temporary license, free now to explore the world on wheels.

Sophomore Class

The Sophomore Class had many decisions to make, but along with making decisions came much enjoyment.

President was Ida Franco, and at her side was Vice-President Pam Ward. Keeping his eye on the money was Treasurer Steve Ford, helped by Secretary Shelli Francis. Advisor Elaine Conley provided any guidance needed by the officers.

The officers sponsored a dance October 9, sold cookies, cakes, brownies and organized the annual class ring sale to help raise money for their class.

Driver Training is taken by most students during their second year.

Budget cuts seemed to spell the end for the KHSD Driver Training Program last year, but the District ran into financial pressure by the state to continue the program for 1981-82, according to Bill Moore, FHS driver training coordinator.

A new, less-expensive program was offered by the Santiago School of Driving. The new plan was adopted by the KHSD Board of Trustees on August 6, 1981.

Driver training was offered at Foothill in December. The new program included six hours of instruction on a driving simulator, three hours observing other students' driving, and a minimum of one hour behind the wheel.

Sophomore Kelly DeFoor remarked that "the program worked rather smoothly, but I would have enjoyed it more if I had been able to actually drive a little more." (J. Morris photos)

Freshman timidness was left behind for many sophomores who got involved in the clubs and sports at FHS.

Sophomores were seen at practices for every kind of sport, some out for a second year, others trying their skills for the first time.

Ski club, California Scholastic Federation, and Spear and Shield were popular with many second year students, who helped plan trips, school activities, and fundraisers.

"I never realized how much time and work it took to put on a formal until I decided to help. It was really fun, but a little tiring also, "said sophomore Kristy Sexton. (S. Briscoe, J. Morris photos)

Student hairdos change by the sophomore year. Whether hair becomes longer, shorter, curlier, or straighter, most students have decided by this point in their lives that a change is needed.

Most students like style; they want to be in with "the crowd". Coming out of junior high, students hairdos were aimed more toward plainer styles. Now students want something out of the ordinary. Punk cuts were popular among the students, and shorter cut styles were also seen in many sophomore classes.

Carrying cards is now a way of life. Parents carry wallet loads of credit cards, and students, too, carry their share of cards. Almost every student at Foothill has an Associated Student Body card, a discount card that allows the students into all Foothill activities. An ASB card can save up to $50, according to Jerry Robinson, director of student activities.

Every student has an I.D. card. The I.D. card is a must when it comes to getting into FHS dances. I.D. cards also come in handy for Bakersfield College Renegade games and other FHS activities. (L. Rangel, C. Colchado photos)

Julian Rodriguez and Don Bryant are a part of Ned Permenter's Fitness for life program.

Fitness for Life is a program students enter in their first year at FHS. Throughout the year, all freshmen Physical Education classes are taught the basics of physical fitness.

Jogging and aerobic exercises as well as basic flexibility stretches were stressed by teachers. The classes stressed the importance of staying in shape, and freshmen learned the proper use of weights and weight training in the new weight room.

For FHS freshmen, many of these basic fitness habits will form a foundation for the rest of their lives. (S. Hamilton Photos)

Freshmen Rally Girls helped promote school spirit during rallies. On September 29, twenty-three girls showed up for tryouts, each realizing that only four would make it. The girls had approximately 1½ hours to learn a cheer taught by the varsity cheerleaders. Advisor Marilyn Wertz and the varsity squad were in charge of electing the four most spirited and skilled freshmen.

The idea of Freshmen Rally Girls is fairly new to Foothill. Three years ago the first freshmen squad was picked, and now the Freshmen class section is one of the toughest competitors in Spirit Stick competition. (D. Martinez photos)

Backpacks were a major Freshman fad. Both boys and girls had backpacks strapped on behind as they walked or rode their way to classes, lunch, and activities after school. Backpacks were used to carry such belongings as books, physical education clothing, and personal items.

Backpacks featuring names such as Jan Sport, White Stag, Ocean Pacific, Lightning Bolt, wyEast, Frontier, California, and Colorado Jr. Backpack, were bought at stores like Big 5, Miller's Outpost, and Footlocker for prices that began at $5.95 and often topped out above $20. Roxanna Dominguez, Kathy Nichols and Angie Shrum featured the leg warmers and blazer styles of '81-'82.

Fashion was an important part of going to school. Freshmen begin to realize that dress is a means of expressing oneself.

Styles varied from plain to extravagant, from punk rock and new wave to cowboy dress and Chicano fashion. The punk rock and new wave started at the beginning of the year and seemed to grow stronger as time went by. Western wear featured plaid shirts, cowboy boots and other fringed clothing, while Chicano fashion included flannel shirts and khaki pants. (M. Figueroa, S. Hamilton photos.)

Bucks and Boosters bring weight room
By Jeff Mayo
Spurred on by a $2,000 donation from the East Bakersfield Progressive club, (EBPC) Foothill's weight room, begun in 1980, is nearing completion.
"Hopefully, the weight room will be completed and ready for use by December," said weight room organizer Ned Permenter. "But I'm not promising anything. Unforseen delays could arise and set our schedule back."
Construction began last fall on what Permenter described as possibly the finest weight room of all Bakersfield schools. Delays due to strikes and state inspections have upset some students.
"A lot of students ask me when will the weight room be ...ished?' said Permenter. ...ey act as if the room ...d have been thrown up ...ht, and that's as dis- ... to me as the delays ... But I'd rather ... things right."

Gov't. class taken to Kern Court

The Social Studies Department adopted new textbooks for American History and Government classes. Also, for the first time in three years, a department elective course, California History, was offered, taught by Gary Johnson.

In Mr. Love's Government classes each student had the opportunity to invite a guest speaker. Guest speakers included Mayor Mary Kay Shell, Assemblyman Don Rogers, Senator Walter Stiern, plus many others. To learn about the judicial system, all Government classes took a field trip to the Kern County courthouse to watch criminal and civil cases.

Metal shop sets new class goals

Metal Class 1AB (prerequisite for metal 2AB) learned skills such as hand-power tools, welding, and mechanical skills. Metal 2AB students learned the skills of arc and oxy-acetlene welding, lathe machining skills and foundry processing.

A student who took the first two years of metal was able to make any project he or she desired. Students learned responsibilities in metal classes as if the classes were structured as a business. Students held the position of shop foremen and area foremen, and were responsible for their areas.

The Art Metal class, taught by Harold Harris, made projects such as copper bowls, wind chimes and copper enamel.

Casteen returns to P.E.

A new face was introduced into the Physical Education Department spring semester. Counselor and former coach Russ Casteen returned from sabbatical to teach three physical education classes spring semester along with his counseling duties.

Band members had the opportunity to take Marching Band third period as physical education credit for this one year only.

Math Field Days held at colleges

The Math Department participated in Math Field Days at Occidental College, California State Colleges at Bakersfield and Fresno, and at Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo.

The department lost George Martinez to staff cuts in June, 1981. Instructor Bob Bennett resigned his position at the end of the fall semester.

Pastries add sweet touch to cafeteria

Additional food items were added to the cafeteria this year. A salad bar was a favorite for many students who ate in the cafeteria. More desserts were added to the menu, and their specialty was the baked pasteries.

Student suggestions about food offering played a key role in a revised menu at the semester break.

Guest experts add spark to ROP courses

The Regional Occupational Program, known as ROP, introduced new courses. Computer Accounting, Auto Technology, and Nursing Assistants were among the 17 that were offered. Students also participated in a Career Day, held at the Civic Auditorium on April 29.

ROP placed a heavy emphasis on guest experts. Guest speakers from the Youth Motivation Task Force, Fashion Institute, and the Universal Technical were among the seven who spoke to FHS students.

The Career Planning Workshop Magazine, "On Your Own," and THE SOURCE were some of the new textbooks used for the program.

To some people,
the future of energy is a total blur.
But, the people of Chevron have been focusing on energy for over 100 years. And what we see is clearly a promising future.
